Burkina Faso President Sends Message To HM The King

Moroccan foreign minister, Saad Dine El Otmani, received, Monday in Rabat, the ambassador of Burkina Faso to Morocco, who handed him a message from Burkinabe president to HM King Mohammed VI.

El Otmani welcomed, in a press statement, the long-standing brotherly relations between Morocco and Burkina Faso and the strong relations between HM the King and president of Burkina Faso.

The minister added that the two countries maintain continued consultations in various fields, including security and stability in Africa and the Sahel region, in addition to development issues in Africa.

He said he had discussed with the Burkinabe official means to develop these relations, to implement the agreements concluded between the two parties and to diversify areas of cooperation.

Moreover, the minister expressed confidence in the future of relations cooperation between the two countries.
